

CHILDREN'S NURSE

The Royal Children's Hospital in Bristol is recruiting student children's nurses to provide care for children and young people. This a very rewarding career for a person who is able to be very responsive in a children's health environment.

Salary. The starting salary will be £22,000 with prospects to significantly enhance salary with experience.

Full training will be given with paid time-off to attend relevant courses and the possibility of enrolling in a degree in children's nursing.

Volunteering experience of working with children or membership of St John Ambulance or the Red Cross would be an advantage.

The working week 37.5 hours and involve shifts including evenings, weekends, night shifts and Bank Holidays

The successful candidate will have a friendly and caring manner, have excellent listening skills and be self - confident.

You will work with doctors and experienced nurses to assess the needs of ill, injured or disabled children.

If you think you the necessary skills to join this important profession please apply to Mr G Nash, Oldfield School, Kelston Road, Bath BA1 9AB, with an application form, CV and covering letter.