

OUTDOOR ACTIVITIES INSTRUCTOR

Outward Bound Trust in North East Somerset has an opportunity for outdoor activities instructors. This job will be of interest if you are keen on a physically demanding outdoor life and have proven skills in outdoor activities.

Salary. The starting salary will be £15,000 with prospects to significantly enhance this with experience.

The entry requirements are a skill in hill walking, canoeing or climbing, a full first aid certificate and a life-saving certificate.

It will be an advantage if you have been involved in Scouting or Guiding, Duke of Edinburgh award, membership of activity clubs and excellent performance in Physical Education at GCSE level. Full training will be given with paid time-off to attend relevant courses at College,

The working hours will be long, irregular and involve evenings, weekends and public holidays.

The successful candidate will have a confident manner, be able to manage groups of people and remain calm in difficult or dangerous situations.

You will provide planning activities, explaining and demonstrating skills, ensure equipment is safe assess and manage risk.

If you want a career in the outdoors working in rugged terrain and on water and want to grow within the Outward Bound Trust, apply to Mr G Nash, Oldfield School, Kelston Road, Bath BA1 9AB, with an application form, CV and covering letter.