

These questions relate to the icons on the posters around the school and people who have influenced Black culture. We wanted to celebrate people who are making an impact now and will be remembered in history for their achievements, influence and inspiration as well as those that have paved the way for equality.

31 questions 31 days.

There will be a prize for the family or individual who get the most answers correct. A copy of the questions can also be found on the school website in the student section. Please send your answers to s.macnaughton@oldfieldschool.com by Monday 2nd November to be included in the prize draw.
