

Home-School Links Policy

Last review : Jan 2023
Committee : SLT
Date Ratified : 18/01/2023

1. Purpose

1.1. Oldfield School is committed to maintaining channels of communication with parents. Expectations are set out in the Home-School Agreement, signed by the school, the parents and the student. The Home-School Links Policy sets out how the channels of communication should work.

1.2. This policy should be read in conjunction with the following policies;

- Safeguarding and Child Protection
- Online Safety
- Acceptable Use for Students
- Behaviour for Learning
- Mobile Phone
- ICT
- Drugs

2. Implementation

2.1. All staff (teaching and support staff) encourage the correct procedures for Home-School communication. Parents are encouraged, in the first instance, to contact their child's tutor.

2.2. Parents are expected to attend all consultation/information meetings. Students should accompany their parents to all subject/tutor consultation evenings.

2.3. Parents and students are encouraged to support school events.

3. Home School Communication via SIMS InTouch

3.1. The main form of written communication between home and school is an electronic mailing system called SIMS InTouch. Parents will receive information such as reports, curriculum updates and educational visits for example, via this method.

- 3.2. Through SIMS InTouch parents are informed daily of any achievement or behaviour points their child has received. This includes a brief reason for the achievement / behaviour point. If a behaviour point has been issued the message includes the sanction the student has received.
- 3.3. If parents/carers do not have access to email, they will be placed on a hard copy list and will receive all of the information outlined in 3.1 but they will not receive notifications of behaviour and achievement points.
- 3.4. Parents can also email individual subject staff via enquiries@oldfieldschool.com FAO the individual student's name and tutor group. Enquiries are then passed onto the most appropriate member of teacher/support staff.

4. Parental enquiries via email or telephone

- 4.1 Parental enquiries via email should be sent to enquiries@oldfieldschool.com FAO the individual student's name, tutor group and if known, the name of the member of staff the enquiry is directed towards. This address is monitored daily and all enquiries are then passed onto the most appropriate member of staff.
- 4.2 Parental enquiries via telephone will be directed to the most appropriate member of staff by the school receptionist. When calling school the following information will be requested to help direct the phone call to the most appropriate member of staff. The receptionist will ask for the following;
- the name of the student;
 - tutor group;
 - nature of the enquiry;
 - the member of staff (if known).
- 4.3 The receptionist faces a difficult job in routing callers. The objective of these guidelines is to avoid "going straight to the top", because the most useful response to a call will come from the point where the problem is being felt. Callers need to understand that staff schedules mean that replies will be reliable, but cannot be immediate.
- 4.4 Initially, calls relating to individual, named students will be routed via the receptionist as outlined below:

Query	Who?	Notes
Absence from school	student absence line (Attendance Office)	SIMS register will be updated. Contact can also be made via email at attendance@oldfieldschool.com
Medical	School Nurse	Can listen, send out an Individual Health Care Plan, check medication and inform of school procedures. Medical Action Plans can be arranged for those students who require additional support to meet their needs.
Lost property	main office	Can listen, send out messages to relevant staff.
Home /out-of-school problems	tutor / head of year	Message taken for relevant staff member. This will be acknowledged that day where possible and be responded to within 2 working days.
Behaviour problems / lesson / homework problems in one subject	subject teacher

Continual behaviour / lesson / homework problems in one subject	Head of Subject /Leader of Learning Area
Behaviour / friendship / attendance problems (general)	Tutor
Persistent poor behaviour / friendship / attendance problems	Head of Year
Requests for authorisation for absence for exceptional circumstances	Deputy Headteacher:Pastoral	Written request via email/letter sent directly to enquiries@oldfieldschool.com for the attention of the Deputy Headteacher:Pastoral
Safeguarding concerns	Designated Safeguarding Lead or Deputy Designated Safeguarding Lead	These staff can listen and then act according to the nature of the disclosure.
Special Educational Needs	SENCO/ Assistant SENCO	Will respond to individual enquiries. This can be delegated to the student's key worker (Teaching Assistant) or SEND co-ordinator.
Admissions (starters/leavers)	Headteacher's PA	Contact can also be made via email through admissions@oldfieldschool.com

4.5 If any of these issues seem too sensitive for normal routing, the Head of Subject/Learning Area or the Head of Year/Designated Safeguarding Lead will be contacted.

4.6 General concerns, e.g. about a group of unnamed students, can be referred directly to the Heads of Year /SLT.

5. Parents' Consultation Meetings

5.1. During each academic year, there are formal opportunities for parents and students to consult with subject staff and their child's tutor.

5.2. These dates are given to parents at the beginning of the school year via the calendar on the school website.

5.3. Nearer the event the consultation meeting is promoted via email/letter. Parents then use the parents' evening booking system to make their appointments.

5.4. There is an expectation that parents/carers attend these events.

6. Home-School Agreement

6.1. The Home-School Agreement is signed by the parent, the tutor and the student when the student is admitted to Oldfield School. This normally occurs in Year 7, otherwise this takes place as part of the in-year admissions process.

6.2. It applies to all students in Years 7-11. A copy of the Home/School Agreement is sent home within the Essential Information pack for the student and parents/carers to sign and return to school as part of the admissions process to Oldfield School. It is then kept centrally with the student's school records. An exemplar is also displayed on the school website.

- 6.3. It provides a set of core principles that each stakeholder must follow (Appendix 1).
- 6.4. If a signed agreement is not returned within a month of the child/ren's admission date an email reminder will be sent home requesting contact is made with the school. This will be to ascertain whether there are specific difficulties in accepting the agreement.
- 6.5. By choosing to send their child/ren to Oldfield School it is the expectation of the school that parents/carers are in agreement with this policy.
- 6.6. Annually, during tutorial time at the start of the academic year, all tutors in Years 7-11 discuss this policy with their tutees. All students then sign the agreement. It is then kept centrally with the student's school records.

7. Sixth Form Agreement

- 7.1 The Sixth Form Agreement is signed by all students when they enter the Sixth Form. It provides a set of core principles that they must follow. It is displayed in the Sixth Form Common Room and the school website (Appendix 2).

8. Making contact with 'hard to reach' parents

- 8.1 Definition: parents who are difficult to contact and/or do not attend parents' evenings or other school events.
- 8.2 The School will use a range of strategies/interventions to develop the relationship between home and school.

9. Other Events/Activities

- 9.1. Parents are notified of all school events by:
- The school newsletter
 - The school website
 - Individual letters home via SIMS InTouch

10. Monitoring of Home School Links

- 10.1. The school monitors the content and quality of home-school links as follows:
- All parents are invited to Parents' Consultation Meetings. The school records their attendance. Follow-up by the Head of Year occurs if necessary.
 - Where appropriate, a record of phone calls is recorded on CPOMS
 - Any concerns from parents about the quality of education are responded to and logged.
 - Parents are invited to give feedback through an annual parental survey.

11. Evaluation

- 11.1 The Home-School Links policy is reviewed formally by the Headteacher.

11.2 This policy will be approved by SLT.
