

OLDFIELD SCHOOL

Dear Applicant

Head of Psychology

Thank you for the interest you have shown in our advertised post of Head of Psychology from September 2024.

We are seeking a vibrant, enthusiastic teacher with a passion for teaching Psychology. Join a department with a collaborative working atmosphere and be responsible for coordinating and leading our successful psychology provision. You will also lead our Health and Social Care and Child Development provision.

The successful candidate will be someone who can demonstrate the ability to:

- to raise standards of student attainment and achievement within the learning area and to monitor and support student progress;
- coordinate an exciting extra-curricular programme;
- develop our reputation for excellence;
- create an exciting and challenging learning environment for all students;
- teach effectively across the age and ability range;
- have high expectations of students.

Oldfield School is committed to safeguarding and protecting the welfare of children and young people and expects all staff and volunteers to share this commitment. Successful candidates will be required to complete an enhanced DBS disclosure.

The closing date is midnight on Sunday 28th April 2024; interviews will be held on Thursday 2nd May 2024.

Unfortunately, due to the high response rate that we receive for posts such as these, we are unable to offer feedback on individual applications which are not shortlisted for interview.

We very much hope you will pursue your interest in this application.

Yours sincerely

Andy Greenhough
Headteacher
