

SUPERCURRICULUM

Links and resources to maximise your learning potential

COURSE CONTENT

Year 12

Terms 1 & 2: Changing Places and Coasts

Term 3, 4 & 5: Contemporary Urban Environments and Water and Carbon

Term 6: NEA

Year 13

Term 1: NEA

Term 2, 3 & 4: Global Systems and Governance and Ecosystems Under Stress

Term 5: Revision

WATCH

- The Americas with Simon Reeve – Simon Reeve travels the entire length of the Americas, exploring diverse landscapes and cultures. iPlayer
- Earth from Space – This series uses satellite imagery to reveal new perspectives on our planet, showcasing its beauty and the impact of human activity. iPlayer
- Climate Change – The Facts – Presented by David Attenborough, this documentary delves into the science of climate change and its global effects. iPlayer
- Our Planet – Narrated by David Attenborough, this series explores the natural world, highlighting the importance of conservation. Netflix and Youtube
- The Equator from the Air – Gordon Buchanan's journey around the equator, focusing on efforts to protect wildlife and people. iPlayer

READ

- Prisoners of Geography by Tim Marshall – This book explores how geographical factors influence political decisions and global conflicts.
- The Power of Geography by Tim Marshall – A follow-up to Prisoners of Geography, this book examines ten regions that are set to shape global politics.
- Factfulness by Hans Rosling – This book provides a refreshing perspective on global development and challenges common misconceptions about the world.
- The Almighty Dollar by Dharshini David – This book traces the journey of a single dollar to explain the complexities of the global economy.
- Adventures in the Anthropocene by Gaia Vince – Vince travels the world to explore how humans are reshaping the planet and adapting to environmental changes.

LISTEN

- 'Geographical Imaginations' – A radio show and podcast that explores how we perceive and interact with the world around us, touching on various geographical themes.
- 'The Geography Podcast' – Hosted by geographers, this podcast discusses current geographical issues, case studies, and exam tips.
- BBC Radio 4 – Costing the Earth – This radio show investigates environmental issues and their impact on our world, providing valuable insights for geography students.
- 'The MapScaping Podcast' – Focused on geospatial technology and its applications, this podcast is great for understanding the technological side of geography.
- 'Geography Ninja' – This podcast covers a wide range of geographical topics, including physical geography, human geography, and current global issues. It's designed to help students understand complex concepts in an engaging and accessible way.

FOLLOW

- @NatGeo (National Geographic) on Instagram and Twitter – National Geographic shares stunning images and stories about our planet, covering a wide range of geographical topics.
- @BBCEarth on Instagram and Twitter – BBC Earth provides insights into the natural world, including ecosystems, wildlife, and environmental issues.
- @GeographicalMag on Twitter – The official account of Geographical Magazine, which covers global issues, cultures, and environments.
- @TheGeographyNinja on Twitter – This account offers tips, resources, and interesting facts specifically for geography students.
- @OurPlanet on Instagram – The official account for the "Our Planet" series, sharing breathtaking visuals and information about conservation and the environment.